BOARDING FEES:

The fee for boarding with a WCDS host family or at Trinity Manor is $11,000 for the school year. This fee includes bus transportation to and from School when needed and transportation to and from area airports in accordance with the School's academic and vacation schedule. Payment of the tuition and boarding fee is made directly to Wakefield Country Day School and is due no later than July 1st. In the event of the withdrawal of the student during the semester, or any change in boarding arrangements during the semester, no refund of the boarding fees will be made.

Boarding fees include coverage of the following expenses:

- Administrative costs and room and board with the host family or at Trinity Manor during the school year with the exception of scheduled school vacations: Christmas Holidays, Winter Break, and Spring Break. Students are expected to travel home or to relatives during Christmas and Spring Break. If a student does not wish to travel, the school will assist in making arrangements with a family in the school community for a fee of $55.00 per day. If the student wishes to stay with the host family or at Trinity Manor (with prior permission of the host family and the student's parents or guardian) the same fee of $55.00 per day will apply and be due in full immediately following the vacation.

*International students are expected to attend the Winter Break Trip as the fees for the trip are included in the tuition and will not be refunded if students do not participate.

*Students should arrive no earlier than August 24, 2019 and should plan to depart the United States by June 7, 2020. High School Graduation Ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, June 6, 2020.

The following expenses are not included in the boarding fee and are the responsibility of the student's parent(s) / guardian:

- Cell phone service fees
- Transportation above and beyond normal, day-to-day activities (i.e. trips to/from airport if not at school shuttle times or ongoing professional appointments)
- Internet access/connection fees and charges
- Medical expenses not covered by student's insurance

Please note: WCDS assumes no liability for any personal injury, property damage or other claims of any nature whatsoever arising from or incident to the boarding agreement between the parents of international students and the host families, and expressly disclaims any and all such liability. It is expressly understood and agreed that the School is not an agent of the host families, nor are the host families acting as agents or employees of the School in connection with the boarding of international students.
